

The Wonderful World of Magic

Elsie

As soon as I got home from school I rushed into my room and saw my rainbow coloured things. Suddenly my brother Max jumped out at me and shouted BOO! He was only two, so I said arrhh you scared me a lot and I picked him up and looked at my watch and realised it was 9 o'clock at night. I took him into his space themed room and tucked him in his rocket bed.

I tiptoed past my big sister, Sophia's room, but I was too loud and she came out and said "Hello, Hopsy-Dopey". I replied, "I told you before, my name is Hope!!", "Whatever", she said. I ran back to my room, checking on my little sister, Chloe, on my way.

At midnight, I woke and was thirsty. I grabbed a glass of water, from the tap, in my rainbow cup. As I was getting back into bed, I saw a glowing door above my head. I climbed up to take a closer look.

I suddenly had an urge to open the door, so I bravely reached for the handle. I pulled hard and when I looked inside there was some sort of whirlpool. It had pink, gold, blue and purple swirling colours, going round and round. I turned and saw my younger siblings behind me, they grabbed me from behind and we fell forwards through the door, into the whirlpool.

We all screamed as we fell down and landed on something bouncy. It turns out it was a massive marshmallow! We stopped and ate some, before exploring further. We started walking and saw a chocolate river. We stopped and used a tasty buttercup to scoop up the chocolate drink, it was delicious! We all enjoyed it and drunk until we felt slightly sick!

We continued to explore and saw a person. She said "Hello, my name is Clarissa! Are you lost?" I said "Yes...well kind of, we don't even know where we are or even what planet we are on!" Clarissa looked surprised and replied "What??!! You don't know that you are in Candy Land!" We all looked at each other and smiled! Clarissa smiled back at us and said "Follow me, I will show you around!"

We explored with Clarissa as our guide. We arrived in the town square, where we met Gingerbread people, saw candyfloss trees, gummy bear lights and then it started to rain gum drops! The rain was delightful!

Max and Chloe started to yawn, so we said thank you and goodbye to everyone. We made our way back to the whirlpool with Clarissa.

We jumped back through the swirling colours and landed on my bed. When we got back we tried to get everyone back to their rooms without waking Sophia but we were too loud. She walked to her door and said "What are you doing!"

We laughed, looked at each other and said, "You would never believe us if we told you!"
